Fieldwork

Fieldwork is an important component of Social Work discipline. The students of BS in Social Work are required to do their Field Works in respective institutions in block placement or once a week for a full day. In addition the students are also required to visit the fieldwork centres in different cities of Pakistan like Lahore, Islamabad, Peshawar, Mingora Swat, Timergara Dir Lower and Bathkela District. In this way the students of Social Work will get practical experience and exposure to the work environment in government as well as private sector.

Besides, fieldwork visits, students in three semesters of BS Program will visit welfare organisations located in main cities to understand the mechanism of helping people under auspices of organisations. Provincial/country head offices of the welfare organisations are suggested for such mandatory field visits.

The students will then submit the fieldwork reports to the fieldwork in-charge and then to the respective chairman.

List of Fieldwork institutions are as under:

1. Peshawar Institute of Prosthetic and Orthotic Sciences Hayatabad Peshawar
2. Special Education Complex Hayatabad Peshawar
3. DOST Welfare Foundation Hayatabad
4. Centre for the Visually Handicap, Hashnagri Peshawar
5. Drugs Abuse Treatment Centre Khyber Teaching Hospital Peshawar
